DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-32, drawn to an osmolarity measuring system, classified in class 422, subclass 50.
 - II. Claims 33-61, drawn to an osmolarity measuring system, classified in class 422, subclass 50.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and I are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not disclosed as being used together (no disclosure of measuring system I being used in conjunction with measuring system II). Further, the two inventions have different modes of operation due to the their different structural components.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group II (i.e. the search for group II does not require a search for an expulsion device), restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species for the receiving device in the claimed invention:

- a) wherein the receiving device comprises a rubber plug,
- b) wherein the receiving device comprises forceps,
- c) wherein the receiving device comprises a block having a groove, or
- d) wherein the receiving device comprises a metal arm.

5. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species for the translation system in the claimed invention:

- a) wherein the translation system comprises a non-tapered cylindrical screw,
- b) wherein the translation system comprises a coarse translation screw and fine translation screw, or
- c) wherein the translation system comprises an electric field

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1 and 33 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
